

An American Movie

An American Movie is a San Francisco band that experiments with music to expand the traditional idea of what "music" is.

Exploring rhythm and tonality through intense meditative improvisation, AAM eschews the limitations of genre. AAM focuses positive intent through their sonic mosaics to elevate the spiritual consciousness of the planet/solar system/galaxy.

That said, An American Movie jams HARD!!! Each member of AAM has many musical adventures under their belt, playing with different bands, projects and constructs for many years. They came together through Monday night jam sessions at a Tenderloin, SF rehearsal space.

An American Movie is:
Robert Wolffe - Drums
R. M. Isaiah - Bass
Kim Wade - Fiddle
Adam Stowers - Guitar
Michael Porrello - Guitar
